PETER PAN IS CHAMPION.

JAMES R. KEENE'S THREE-YEAR-OLD WINS THE BRIGHTON HANDICAP.

Gamely Carries His Burden Under Notter's Skillful Handling—McCarter Is Second and Montgomery Third.

New York, July 13.—Peter Pan set the seal upon his fame when he scored an uphill and convincing victory at one mile and a quarter over thirteen brilliant opponents in the rich Brighton Handicap this afternoon. The achievement of James R. Keene's gigantic son of Commando and Cinderella was one of the grandest and most meritorious ever recorded. Peter Pan was ridden with rare skill and judgment by the diminutive lightweight jockey, Notter, and by unanimous consent all the glories of the race were awarded this colt and his pilot. In the paddock after the snapshotters had photographed the horse and jockey, Mr. Keene said slowly and thoughtfully: "I don't think that any horse that ever preceded Peter Pan has a better right to a place in the valhalla of the turf than he, and I do not think that anybody will have reason to doubt his gameness after today's performance."

The famous octogenarian sportsman was patting his wonderful horse on the head when speaking and he turned to jockey Notter with the remark, "You rode a good race." To this Notter quickly replied: "Yes, sir, but I had a good horse." The great crowd of hero worshipers that surrounded the notable trio, horse, owner and jockey, strained eagerly to hear what was said and from many of those that caught the remarks, came a spontaneous outburst of applause. It was truly a remarkable scene.

There were fourteen starters for the race. Beacon Light was withdrawn because of lameness and it is said his disability spoiled a projected killing on a big scale. Beacon Light and McCarter, today's runner-up, are trained by Tom Weish. In their final trials for the big race it is claimed that Headley's four-year-old easily defeated his younger rival, held him safe at all stages, in fact, and on McCarter's showing and close second to the winner, after making all the running, his people consider themselves very unlucky, indeed.

Today's fixture is the richest of all the great mile and a quarter handicaps decided over the metropolitan courses during the first half of the racing season and it invariably attracts the cream of the three-year-olds. This year horses of this age far overshadowed their older opponents in importance and in Peter Pan, McCarter and Montgomery practically monopolized the betting honors of the race. It also turned out to be the most spectacular race of the year. The public backed Peter Pan even at the absurdly short price of 8 to 5. It would have note of the others. The rank and file of racegoers had sublime faith in the great three-year-old and they swamped the ring with these wagers.

The story of the race can be briefly told. The issue after the first half mile was strictly confined to the three horses placed at the end. McCarter, with Miller up, as was to be expected, beat the others away and made the running. For the first mile Miller kept looking back at the others. He He did this so often and his horse seemed to be running so powerfully under him that ultimate victory for McCarter was freely predicted even before half the going had been negotiated. Montgomery, in eantime, was always in near and close pursuit, but Miller apparently was not exercised over the e proximity, but was looking for some one more formidable. This was Péter Pan, of course, which, during the early running, was so far back that he was invisible to the leader.

The favorite got away slowly, hemmed in on both sides and did not loom up until beginning the turn into the backstretch. He made up ground slowly, but surely, the third quarter; more rapidly on the turn, and finally, after baving passed Montgomery, challenged McCarter in the last quarter with an expiring and heroic burst of speed, getting up to win right at the end in the most wonderful exhibition of gameness ever witnessed anywhere.

Peter Pan was a big handful for a little lad like Notter, who exhibited the coolness of a veteran. An element of luck attended the pair, however, for there was just as little interference as could ever be expected in a race of this kind. The best horse won and it was an unqualified success.

It was a good day's racing otherwise. Commodore Fontaine won a well contested race when he took the Punchestown Steeplechase from Delcanta. Palm was a distant third. Old Grandpa, the only other starter, fell.

The history of the Punchestown Steeplechase is as follows:

Suffrage carried 127 pounds to an easy victory in the sprint and August Belmont won the third race with a coming crackerjack in Fair Play. Miller rode him and many thousands of dollars were taken out of the ring over his victory. What appeared like the biggest certainty of the day in Saylor was upset in the fifth, Reidmoore winning at 15 to 1 with the heavily backed Durnell horse a close second. Another 15 to 1 chance in Reene W. scored in the last.

Public choices accounted for half of the card, yet on the whole, the layers had a shade the best of it. Owing to the frequent wetting the track had received of late, the expected fast time in the different races did not materialize.

The weather was an important element of enjoyment. There were bright, sunshiny skies, cooling breezes from the nearby ocean, and no humidity. It was well that such ideal atmospheric conditions prevailed, otherwise life would have been unendurable to the vast multitude that packed the Brighton enclosure on this memorable occasion. Everybody at Brighton, Manhattan, and Coney Island celebrates handleap day, and, encouraged by the particularly promising weather indications there were nearly 50,000 visitors from the city and surrounding country who journeyed out to this good old democratic oval and took occasion to celebrate with the seaside inhabitants.

WINDSOR MEETING COMES TO A CLOSE.

Fantastic Wins the Feature—Charlie Gilbert's
Defeat Due to Jockey Kelly.

Detroit, Mich., July 13.—The Highland Park Club's meeting of twenty-five days at Windsor closed today. In point of attendance and profit to the club it was the most successful ever held at the track across the border. The best horses here will be shipped to Fort Erie during the coming week to await the opening of the meeting there July 22. Secretary Parmer is unable to give stable room to all applicants, but will use his best judgment in the effort to provide quarters and occupation for the horde which must otherwise remain idle. No horse that is not in racing condition will be given a stall at Fort Erie.

The track today was lumpy and slow, but the races were keenly contested. The feature of the card was the third, in which the top-notchers at the track at a mile and a sixteenth met. It was meant as a try-out for those eligible to the Canadian Derby, to be run at Fort Erie the first day of the meeting. Fantastic. Mrs. Goldblatt's good filly, scored a lucky victory. Charlie Gilbert was best, but Just as he seemed to have the race well in hand, his jockey, J. Kelly, attempted to draw the finish fine and Fantastic, vigorously ridden by Boland, came up on the outside and nipped him at the finish.

Favorites and second choices in all of the events scored with the exception of the first, Taunt being the longest priced horse to win. Etrena, backed from 6 to 1 to 5 to 2 in the last race, through the good riding of Boland, managed to get up in time to win by a nose from Pungent.

MONTREAL STAKES TO CLOSE.

The inaugural Montreal meeting was one of such unqualified success as to at once assure the new racing organization a favorable position in the es teem of horsemen and a profitable and popular future. Some doubt as to the attainment of this cess affected stake entries in the case of spring meeting, but no such element is likely to intervene as an obstacle in the way of future meet The Montreal Jockey Club has opened a list of stakes to be run at its next meeting, which be gins Saturday, August 31. Considering the difficulties owners are now laboring under and the timely owners of horses now being raced at Latonia. Windsor and Kenilworth do not give these stakes note worthy patronage. With racing effaced from the map in Illinois, Missouri and Ohio, it is very much to their own interest to foster all new racing en terprises to the end that opportunities for profit able employment of their horses may be increased. The stakes now offered are the Saint James Handicap at a mile and an eighth, Ocean Gateway Stake at three-quarters of a mile, Champ de Mars Stakes at mile, Primrose Stakes and St. Lawrence Stakes at five-eighths of a mile each and the Canadian Grand National Steeplechase over the full course of about two and a half miles. They close for entries Saturday, July 27.

MORE ROOM AND LESS RUSHING.

New York, July 13.—A novel arrangement of the bookmakers in the "field ring" went into effect at Brighton Beach Thursday and was highly successful. Instead of arranging the layers in a circle, Ringmaster Cavanagh has placed them in a series of rows, with broad aisles between, so that it is easy for the crowds to get in and out of the pavilion. The field layers say that the new plan enables all of them to get a whack at the business, while the bettors for the first time were permitted to make their wagers without confusion. The old circular arrangement is still in vogue in the "big ring," but there may be a change one of these days if the "field plan" continues to be a success.

BRIGHTON BEACH STAKES.

Seven stake races will be decided at Brighton Beach in the course of the racing week which begins tomorrow, one each day on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and three Saturday, Friday being a day of purses only. For tomorrow is set the Atlantic Stakes at five and a half furlongs for two-year-olds, the probable starters being named in the entry lists published today. The Seagate Stakes, a dash of a mile and an eighth for three-year-olds, will be run Tuesday. Frank Gill, Montgomery, Dinna Ken, Tony Faust, Charles Edward, Fountainblue, W. H. Daniel, Conville, Kentucky Beau Temaceo, Superman, Zambesi, Killaloe and Jack Atkin are among its eligibles, and it may furnish cracking race. For Wednesday afternoon the $7,500 Venus Stakes, a dash of five and a half fur ongs for two-year-old fillies, is the stake attraction Here Megg's Hill, Stamina, Fancy, Lady Winifred. Keep Moving, Julia Powell, Goldfinn, Half Sover Martha Jane, Tartar Maid and Ella O'Neill eign. best. The Queen's Stakes of $7,500, a dash of a mile and a half for mares three years old and over, will be decided Thursday. Of an original entry of fifty-six all but sixteen have been de Flip Flap, Yankee, Girl, Court Dress Mentha, Belle of Pequest, and Gold Lady are best of those left in.

Saturday's program calls for the decision of the Curragh Steeplechase, Islip Handicap and Neptune Stakes. The Currah is over the short course of about two miles, with Phantom, Jimmy Lane, Kernel, Pioneer, Arabo, Dr. Logan, Sheriff Williams, Palm, Bound Brook and other good jumpers engaged. The Islip Handicap is at a mile and an eighth, with Don Enrique, Flip Flap, Dishabille, Kercheval, W. H. Daniel, Nealon, Montgomery Superman, Frank Gill, Cairngorm, Conville, Ang Miss Crawford, Dreamer, Red Friar, First mium, Tony Faust, Proper, Philander, Ca Premium, ochon, Coy Maid, Dan Buhre, Lord Lovat, Jack Atkin, Far West, Penarris, Bat Masterson, Bor ghesi, Wexford, Martin Doyle, Electioneer and Dolly Spanker among its eligibles. The Neptune s at three-quarters for two-year-olds, and is another of the club's $7,500 features. Chapultepec, Maga zine, Masque, Besom, King James, Ben Fleet Stargowan, Robert Cooper, Smoker, Long Ball, Mo Sir Cleges and Montelair seem the of the sixty still eligible, and on the whole a day marked by excellent racing seems in store.

FLEMING WINS BUFFALO FEATURE.

Lord Boanerges the Best Horse—Cobmosa
Defeats Right Royal a Nose.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 13.—The race for the International Handicap, the feature race at Kenilworth this afternoon, proved easy for Fleming, heavily backed by a party of wise ring operators. On public performances Lord Boanerges, with Ampedo out of the way, appeared to outclass the others. Lord Boanerges was ridden by McDaniel and when the start came this fast horse was outfooted by Hawkama and before the half mile post was reached he was last. Rounding the far turn he went to the leaders with a rush and just before entering the homestretch showed in front, but he quit suddenly and from there to the finish he fell back gradually. McDaniel turned his head loose and kept waying his whip, but never once struck the horse with it.

Cobmosa showed a great stretch run in the fifth race. He finished with a fine burst of speed through the last furlong and just managed to get up in time to beat Right Royal out a nose.

Jockey Musgrave left the hospital this morning where he has been confined since his accident and was at the track this afternoon.

Edward Whelan will ship his string to Fort Eric Tuesday. The Seagram string will be sent to Saratega.

The Thomas stable arrived at Fort Erie this morning and jockey Shilling was at Kenilworth this afternoon. He secured several engagements for Monday.

H. T. Griffin shipped the filly Dixon Belle back to New York. She left with Eugene Wayland's horses.

JAMES HOGG IS ENERGETIC.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 13.—James Hogg, who is riding here for the Haymans, is an energetic sort of a lad with a great eye for business. He is ever on the alert for outside mounts and makes a round of the stables after the races every day, seeking engagements for the next day. Roger Minton, trainer for the Haymans, who has charge of Hogg, thinks that the boy will develop into a first-class rider before next year. He will take him to California with him, the Haymans having decided to race a string at Los Angeles next winter.

PADDOCK SALE AT LATONIA.

Cincinnati, O., July 13.—Before the racing began today at Latonia, the following horses were sold by auction:

TO REST UP AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., July 13.—J. C. Milam and Dillard Hill have shipped their borses here from Latonia and will soon be followed by those of A. L. Darnaby, J. S. Hawkins, S. K. Hughes, John Rodegap and Hughes Brothers. All the members of these strings will rest up until the fall meeting at Louisville,

HAYES' BIG DAY AT LATONIA.

WINS THE CINCINNATI HOTEL SPRING HANDICAP AND TWO PURSES.

Meeting Closes with Fine Weather and a Big Crowd—Bookmakers Fred Cook and A. Fontelieu Are Heavy Winners.

Cincinnati, O., July 13.—This, the last day of the Latonia Jockey Club's spring meeting, will go down in turf history as "Hayes' day." The Kentuckian scored a triple that was costly to the layers. He won the Cincinnati Hotel Spring Handicap, which featured the card, with Redgauntlet; took the second with Hollow, and the fifth with Colonel Bob, which repeated brilliantly over his performance of the day before. In addition to this Mr. Hayes has an interest in Princess Orna, which carried the colors of H. P. Headley to victory in the last race.

The fine weather and the good program, together with the knowledge that there is to be no more racing in these parts until October, attracted one of the largest crowds of the meeting. The seven scrambles for get-away purses afforded highly entertaining sport.

Redgauntlet was in the handicap lightly, but he is wind broken and has been tiring so badly in his recent races that his ability to go a considerable route was doubted. The drying out track, as well as the weight, suited him and he had no difficulty in leading the others from start to finish. Old Honesty was a keen conteder, closing a considerable gap around the upper turn, but he quit at the end of a mile. The Minks made a gallant effort through the last quarter, but was next the inner rail where the going was deepest.

On a track to her liking, Oak Grove showed a good performance in the third, wearing down the leaders in the stretch and winning easily. Rebounder was one of the get-away good things of the afternoon. He also found a track made to order for him and easily led his opponents from end to end. The customary get-away set back was reserved for the crowd in the final race when Envoy, the favorite, and the one life-saving bet that had been relied on by pretty nearly everyone, got the better of J. Lee and ran off a guarter of a mile at top speed.

Fred Cook announced at the close of the racing that he had won $25,000 on the meeting. He will rest up at his Illinois farm for the next week and take with him about eighteen bookmakers' clerks. A. Fontelieu acknowledged being $36,000 winner. He will return to New Iberia, La., until the resumption of racing in this section. Joe Yeager is credited with having won about $10,000 and will go from here to Mackinac Island. The biggest loser is L. M. Sire, who has religiously been following J. C. Milam's stable. He is credited with being $40,000

The horses in the string of J. Gass & Co. will be shipped to Saratoga. T. W. Moore has decided to leave The Clansman and his other horses here. J. S. Bratton will ship his horses to his farm near St. Louis for a much needed rest. Hughes Brothers will ship four horses to Lexington tonight.

William Gerst said this afternoon that he has ninety-five racers scattered in various sections of the country. Most of these will be disposed of in the near future.

Jockey Crimmins was forced to cancel his engagements for today on account of illness.

JAMES R. KEENE'S WINNINGS.

Peter Pan is now in the "great list," having won over $100,000. His earnings to date foot up $116,450 for his two seasons. James R. Keene's winnings to date this year aggregate $208,316. In 1905 he won $228,724 and last year $155,519, a total of $592,559 for two and one-half years.

BETTING CORRECTION—COLONEL BOB.

In race 70095, the fourth at Latonia July 12, Colonel Bob's odds were incorrectly reported as 7-5 opening, 8-5 high, 8-5 closing, 1-2 place, out show. The correct odds were 7-5 opening, 8-5 high, 4-5 closing, 1-2 place, out show.

Winner—B. m, by Harvey—Plover (trained by W. Shields).

Went to post at 3:97. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same. Flying Plover was reserved from the early pace, but was always close up, moved up after beginning the second turn of the field, easily passed St. Enoch and, drawing away, won cantering. St. Enoch, easily lost of the others, had no contention for second place. Bank Holiday was as easily third after Goldenway lost his rider at the tenth jump. The others were never contenders.

Fantastic ran forwardly all the way and, after being cut off on the stretch turn, went to the outside and, in a bard firire, nipped out Charlie Gilbert in the final stride. Charlie Gilbert appeared an easy winner when a sixteenth from home and his rider began to ease him up and so lost the race. Kelpie set the early pace, but tired badly in the final drive and just lasted long enough to save third place from Jacomo. The latter finished with a rush.

Went to, post at 4:15. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Peter Pan broke badly in the middle of the field and was hemmed in the first furlong, improved his position gradually on the outside and got into striking distance of the leaders on the backstretch, commenced to overhaul the leaders slowly, but surely, and got up finally under the whip. McCarter made the running by clear daylight and was going well in hand for a mile and an eighth, but succumbed in the last stride of a terrific effort. Montgomery developed brilliant speed and, after going a half, was in close quarters for nearly a mile and closed up in the last turn, but fell back when Peter Pan challenged him, then came again very fast, but could not quite get up. Dandelion suffered at the start and was in close quarters for nearly a mile and closed up in the last quarter into a fast going fourth. Miss Crawford steadily improved her position and finished close up in a cracking effort. Cottontown held forth in the rear, hemmed in and unable to get clear sailing until too late, then came very fast. First Premium, nearly left, had no chance at the start. Fountainblue got away very badly and ran on the outside throughout and was pulled up frequently, had no chance with the ride, but put up a cracking effort. Coy Maid was prominent for seven furlongs and quit badly. Nealon loomed up at the half, but was crowded out and pulled up. Faust got away poorly and showed early speed. Martin Doyle retired carly.

HITCHCOCK'S CHAMPION JUMPERS.

It has never fallen to the lot of another man in this country to have in his barn at the same time two such sterling steeplechasers as Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., has enjoyed in Good and Plenty and Hylas. Their combined winnings for him foot up $88,430. Of this Good and Plenty has earned $44,965 in four seasons, and Hylas $43,465 in three seasons. The figures for other great jumpers of the past are not at hand, but in saying that no horse has earned as much as either of these in this country no great risk taken. Good and Plenty is a year older than his stablemate, and his physical condition is not so good, so it is to be presumed that when their careers are ended Hylas will have earned vastly more money. Good and Plenty is a bay gelding, seven years old, by Rossington—Famine. He was not raced until his fourth year, and all of his racing has been done in Mr. Hitchcock's colors. Hylas is a bay gelding, six years old, by Meddler-Forget. He was first owned by W. C. Whitney and raced in his colors as a two-year-old, winning only $100, which came with his one third out of nine starts. Mr. Hitchcock bought him and schooled him for steeplechasing all the year 1904. The records of their performances up to date are as follows: GOOD AND PLENTY.

SOUFFLE IS MATED WITH STALWART.

Karl Jungbluth, in mating Souffle with Stalwart this year, believes the result will be a phenomen ally speedy thoroughbred. Souffle was a star on the turf, as was also Stalwart, and both are of royal lineage, in their veins running the blood of Derby and St. Leger winners.

Souffle was an American Oaks queen, winning the Kentucky, Cincinnati and Latonia Oaks, The Hunters' Stakes and twenty-one other races, and Ben Brush was one of the famous horses which went down before her in defeat. Stalwart is conceded to be the greatest of the sons of Meddler, and his victories in the Century and Annual Champion Stakes as a three-year-old will always shine among the most brilliant performances of the racing season of 1904.

Souffle is fourteen years old, the same age Beckon was the season she was bred to Filigrane, that mating of a turf queen to a brilliant racehorse resulting in Accountant, the champion money winner of the American turf in 1906. Filigrane was six years old when he sired Accountant, a year younger than Stalwart is now, and the latter is now two years older than was the dead Commando, when he sired the present American turf champion, Peter

NOTES OF THE TURF.

J. C. Core, the three-year-old son of Garry Herman—Purity in the Newcastle Stable, had his ears badly frost-oitten and the tips are gone.

Jockey Prior, who rode Martin Doyle in the Brighton Handicap yesterday, put in his time last winter as a brakeman on a railroad in Canada.

James McLaughlin, Jr., is getting together a small string to race on the Canadian circuit. He has leased from J. Diggins the two-year-old filly, Helen Green, and is negotiating with R. T. Wilson, Jr., for the two-year-olds Saltram and Dominant.

Wonder when our racing in the east will advance

Jr., for the two-year-olds Saltram and Dominant. Wonder when our racing in the east will advance to the stage of the infield filled with coaches, carriages, well-dressed women and men, as it is in Europe, and as it was at the unfortunately defunct Washington Park, Chicago. In England, one afternoon, the great jockey, "Morny" Cannon was thrown from his horse in a race, and rolled under the infield fence, to find himself brought up at a coach lunch party. The hostess quietly remarked: "How do you do, Mr. Cannon? Will you take a glass of champagne and some lunch?"—Sports of the Times.

PREVENTS KICKING AT THE START.

"Mr. S. Miller, the Australian racing expert. who has just arrived home from his trip to Eng-land, seems to have a high opinion of English horses-or rather the best of them-but he prefers our way of managing racing," says the Australasian. "He gives one good reason why the starting machine is not the success in England that it is with us. The horses are placed too far apart. In England the starters seem to think the horses will kick when bunched up at a start as horses will kick when bunched up at a suit they are with us. This is just what they will not do. It is when they have a little room that they let And they stand better at the barrier when closely packed as with us. I would like to hear of an Australian starter like Mr. Tom Watson trying his hand at starting in England with the single-strand machine they have at Randwick. I think he would soon show that the starting gate is a good thing."
